CAIRO STRIPE

Cairo Stripe calls to mind old-fashioned ticking, but with an imaginative twist. The next time you are at the Cairo Museum, seek out the renowned statues of Prince Rahotep and his stately wife, Nofret masterpieces of the Old Kingdom (c. 2550 B.C.). Note the painted stripes encircling Nofret's neck that are meant to convey bejeweled necklaces. Cairo Stripe is printed in Switzerland on 100% Belgian linen and is available in four colourways: Felucca, Palm, Ramses, and Delta.
