The 1st Galerie House Of Art And Design Debuts In Sag Harbor

Galerie has launched their very first showhouse, the Galerie House of Art and Design, in Sag Harbor, New York. Over 20 designers were selected to transform a Shingle-style estate into a one-of-a-kind model of unique design.

“For the house, we selected designers who are celebrated for their ability to create extraordinary rooms that showcase exceptional collections of art,” says Jacqueline Terrebonne, editor in chief of Galerie. “We are so excited to see the spaces they design and how they incorporate work from today’s leading artists and galleries into their concepts.”

Below, see the transformed spaces of the house, including a room by Rayman Boozer of Apartment 48, who sourced several pieces on Chairish for his design.
